HOURLY UPDATE

3 businesses named 'most outstanding local minority-owned firms'

By Becky Pallack

ARIZONA DAILY STAR

Tucson, Arizona | Published: 09.18.2006

Three small businesses were singled out today as the most outstanding local minority-owned firms of the year.

The Minority and Small Business Alliance of Southern Arizona honored the business owners for their success and community involvement as part of Minority Enterprise Development Week, which begins today. The winners are:

- Minority Service Firm of the Year - Sonoran Oasis Landscaping, owner Deborah Muñoz-Chacon

- Minority Construction Firm of the Year - Castro Electric, 5023 E. 29th St., owner Valentin Castro

- Minority Technology Firm of the Year - Tucson Embedded Systems, 5620 N. Kolb Road, co-owners David Crowe, Antonio Procopio, Dennis Kenman and Sean Mulholland

Also honored were Alex Cooper, a business analyst at Pima Community College's Small Business Development Center, who was named Minority Business Advocate of the Year.

Yoichi Tomita, owner of Gymnastics World, was given a Lifetime Achievement Award.
